WOMEN GIVING TOGETHER PRESENTED $34,000 IN GRANTS TO LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS.

DELAWARE, Ohio (June 07, 2019) - Women Giving Together, a giving circle of the Delaware County Foundation, is proud to announce the distribution of $34,000 in grant money to local community organizations at their recent grants reception in May.

“I’m excited to see this organization grow every year and to view the good it is doing in our local community,” said Sue Mahler, Co-Founder of Women Giving Together. “We are always interested in more women joining our giving circle, because as we grow, the more good we can do in Delaware County.”

Paula Tarpey, a founding member of Women Giving Together added, “The grant reception is my favorite part of being involved, since we get to distribute the funds to many hard-working non-profits in the area. Our group is made up of more than 30 women who donate their time and money, and it’s nice for us all to get together and make a difference.”

The organizations that are benefiting from the recent grant selection are the following: People in Need, Partners in Play, Girls on the Run at Woodward Elementary in Delaware, Liberty Township YMCA, Women’s City Club, Grace Clinic, United Way of Delaware County Strengthening Families, Maryhaven, Delaware Helpline, Leader in Me project at Fouse Elementary in Westerville, and Pregnancy Resources of Delaware County.
