KENSINGTON WEALTH PARTNERS, LTD. WELCOMES VANESSA BEY AS DIRECTOR OF CLIENT SERVICES

COLUMBUS, Ohio (March 1, 2017) – Kensington Wealth Partners, Ltd., a premier financial planning organization headquartered in Columbus, Ohio, welcomes Vanessa Bey as Director of Client Services. In this role, Vanessa will be responsible for all aspects of client service from new account set-up and on-going maintenance to address and beneficiary changes to distribution requests and appointment scheduling.

“Vanessa’s expertise and passion for client service is an excellent match for our team,” said Paul A. Gydosh Jr., CFP®, Managing Director of Kensington Wealth Partners. “Our focus is to deliver stellar service to our clients, and Vanessa will help us exceed our commitment.”

Vanessa brings more than fifteen years of experience in financial planning, investment relations and client services. She has spent much of her financial services career serving as the point person for clients, always working proactively to help clients succeed. Vanessa has previously worked within both the financial services and real estate industries.

“Clients will continue to receive the same level of first-class service they’ve come to expect from Kensington Wealth Partners,” continued Gydosh. “Please join me in welcoming Vanessa to our team!”

Vanessa earned her bachelor’s degree in Finance from Franklin University in Columbus, Ohio, and also studied Computer Science at The Ohio State University. She is obtaining her Series 7 securities registration and is also a notary public.

Vanessa lives in Gahanna, Ohio where she’s owned her home since 2004. She enjoys being socially active with friends and networking groups. She also spends time volunteering for organizations that raise money and awareness for various causes like animal rights, cancer prevention and Down Syndrome.
