KENSINGTON WEALTH PARTNERS, LTD. APPOINTS PAULA TARPEY AS CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER AND SHAREHOLDER

COLUMBUS, OH, Nov. 21, 2011 – Paula Tarpey has been named chief operating officer (COO) and shareholder of Kensington Wealth Partners, Ltd. In this new role, Paula will be responsible for managing the day-to-day activities of the firm as well as the development, design and operation of the systems that deliver the value and service that Kensington Wealth Partners' clients receive.

“As a shareholder, her role grows to provide planned continuity of service to our clients,” said Paul Gydosh Jr., managing director of Kensington Wealth Partners. “Paula will also take a more active role in the strategic direction of the firm.”

Paula has been with Kensington Wealth Partners since 2001, serving as the director of wealth management for the firm, where she focused on the implementation of strategies for wealth accumulation, preservation and transfer.

“My ten years in this industry and with Kensington Wealth Partners have been the most fulfilling of my professional career,” said Paula Tarpey, COO and shareholder of Kensington Wealth Partners. “Becoming a shareholder reaffirms my commitment to the firm and our clients.”

Prior to joining Kensington Wealth Partners, Paula spent nearly ten years working in commercial, private and investment banking with a specialization in the communications and technology industries. She received a Bachelor of Science degree in finance from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. She also holds Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) Series 7 and Series 63 registrations.

Paula is a national speaker on a variety of financial topics including financial planning case design, portfolio investment tools for charitable foundations and practice management.
